

WESTERN HACKBERRY TREE

General Notes - - - Native to California.

Deciduous tree with small red berries. Attracts birds.

Tree Characteristics

Spreading or Weeping with a Low Canopy. Rounded or Umbrella Shape. Has Deciduous foliage.

Height: 25 - 35 feet. Growth Rate: 24 Inches per Season. Longevity 50 to 150 years.

Leaves Ovate, Medium Green, Gold, Deciduous.

Flowers Inconspicuous in Spring.

Brown, Orange or Red Drupe, Very Small (Under 0.25 inches), fruiting in Summer or Fall
Edible.

Bark Mottled, Light Gray or Red Brown, Smooth.

Shading Capacity Rated as Moderate in Leaf and out of Leaf.

Litter Issue is Dry Fruit.

WESTERN HACKBERRY TREE

Tree Site Conditions & Constraints

Sunset Zones 1 - 3 and 10 - 13. USDA Hardiness Zones 3 - 9.

Exposure Full Sun to Partial Shade.

Drought tolerant. Moist to Dry Soil. Loam or Sand Texture. Neutral to Highly Alkaline Soil pH.

Seaside Tolerance is Not Suited.

Pests & Disease Information

Susceptible to Aphids and Insect Galls.

Health, Safety & Environmental Concerns

Branch Strength Rated as Medium. Root Damage Potential Rated as Low.

Allergy Health Hazard.

Attracts Birds. Deer Palatable.

Special Uses & Value - - - Screen.